IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS FOR CANDIDATES FOR ADMISSION PART-A

SELF-SUPPORTING PROGRAMME

- The candidates applying against this category will submit a bank draft to the Treasurer amounting to Rs.1,50,000/- with break up i.e. (i) Rs.50,000/- with the application form, (ii) Rs.50,000/- and (iii) Rs.50,000/- drawn in his favour. The Treasurer, University of Agriculture, Faisalabad will issue three copies of the receipt to the candidate which he will have to attach alongwith each admission form to be submitted in the office of Director, Advanced Studies.
- The candidate seeking admission on self supporting scheme will have also to pay the normal dues being charged from other regular students in addition to Rs.1,50,000/- deposited at the time of submission of application.
- In case a candidate is not selected on merit after depositing entry fee or not willing to join the course (as the case may be), the amount of entry fee can be refunded. Provided that such candidate after one month from commencement of classes submits an application addressed to the Treasurer for the purpose. The application should be certified/recommended by the Director Advanced Studies indicating that the applicant applied for admission in the category but could not be admitted on merit in the course(s) wherever he was eligible to apply/not completed admission formalities being unwilling to join the course (as the case may be) and the entry fee may be refunded to him. The applications for refund of entry fee submitted after the expiry of the respective financial year, shall not be entertained in any case.
- If the candidate once admitted against this category, deposits the normal dues and enrolls himself by submitting GS/10 forms and subsequently leaves the University under any circumstances, the amount alongwith other dues already deposited by him shall not be refunded in any case.
- If admission of any candidate is notified but he neither deposited the University dues nor completed the enrolment formalities within the stipulated period, his/her admission shall stand cancelled and the amount deposited by him will be refunded to him as specified under 4 above.
- If the applicants seeking admission on the self supporting scheme are more than the number of allocated seats, the admission will be made on merit (among themselves) to be determined on the basis of marks obtained by the respective applicants in their B.Sc. examination plus marks obtained in the relevant subject wherever applicable.
- The minimum existing eligibility conditions prescribed for admission to all the relevant postgraduate courses in the morning session will remain the same also for the candidates applying on self supporting scheme.
- Admission on all categories shall be completed first and admission in the entry fee paid programme shall be notified later on.

PART-B- OPEN MERIT (MORNING/EVENING PROGRAMME)

- If a candidate once admitted on merit in morning / evening programme, deposits the prescribed dues and enrolls himself by submitting GS/10 forms and subsequently leaves the University under any circumstances, the amount of fees etc. deposited by him shall not be refunded in any case.
- If a candidate deposits University dues but does not submit GS/10 form then 50% of total fee deposited would be refunded only.
- If admission of any candidate in morning/ evening programme is notified but he/she neither deposits the University dues nor completes the enrolment formalities within the stipulated period, his admission stands cancelled.
