- Only registered students will be considered for scheme in current financial year FY 2015-16
- Once the student registered, the university may Approve/Disapprove the student based on the eligibility criteria of Scheme
- Funds will be paid to those students who will be approved by their respective university/postgraduate colleges
- Newly registered students are not required to validate their records
- Students "Disapproved" by the university/postgraduate colleges will not be considered for the payment
- After the deadline of April 30, 2016 no new registration will be entertained

Deadline for New Registration
April 30, 2016

Date Extension for Record Validation
(for existing/onboard students)

It has been noticed that a large number of students have not validated their records under PM's Tuition Fee Reimbursement Scheme (PMFRS) by the deadline March 18, 2016. Higher Education Commission has received repeated requests from participating universities and students for re-opening of the record validation process. In order to facilitate the students, HEC has re-opened the record validation. Students are advised to validate their records by April 21, 2016.

If a student's record already exists and wants to apply again for next degree under the Scheme, he/she has to validate his/her existing record and then follow the guidelines as mentioned under "update academic details" which are available on following link pmfrs.hec.gov.pk/guide.php.

This is final call for validation. Non-validated students will not be considered for reimbursement of FY 2014-15 by their respective universities

Please visit our website www.hec.gov.pk/frs to review the eligibility criteria, list of approved less developed regions and other important information.

All Public Sector Universities/Postgraduate Colleges under the scheme are required to approve newly registered eligible students through portal by May 6, 2016.

Please visit pmfrs.hec.gov.pk for Record Validation and New Registration.
