14TH INTERNATIONAL BHURBAN CONFERENCE ON APPLIED SCIENCES AND TECHNOLOGY

The 14th International Bhurban Conference on Applied Sciences & Technology (IBCAST) organized by Center of Excellence in Science & Applied Technologies (CESAT), Islamabad, is scheduled to be held from 10th – 14th January, 2017 at National Centre for Physics (NCP), Islamabad. The conference is open to all the interested individuals, academia and R&D organizations from all over the world and they would be glad to share knowledge with their leading universities. A broad range of topics of current interest in Advanced Materials, Aerostructures, Biomedical Sciences, Control & Signal Processing, Cyber Security & Assurance Technologies, Fluid Dynamics, Medical Sciences, Underwater Technologies and Wireless Communication & Radar would be covered in the technical sessions of the conference. Selected papers presented in IBCAST shall be published by IEEE, which is the technical sponsor of their conference. They expect faculty members and students from our esteemed institution to take part in the conference (application form attached herewith and can also be downloaded from their website www.ibcast.org.pk). Keeping in view the limited capacity of lecture halls, an early response in this regard would be appreciated.
